

Thank you for choosing the Ptarmigan Inn for your future reservation.

At the present time, reservations for mountain access are not required for Steamboat season pass holders. In an effort to limit on-mountain capacity, specifically during holiday and peak periods, Steamboat.com is currently not offering stand-alone or same-day lift tickets. However, guests who book prior to November 2nd will be able to purchase a three-day lift ticket (or more) through The Ptarmigan Inn as a preferred partner of Steamboat. Please send your request for tickets to tickets@theptarmigan.com on or before November 2nd and we will respond with options to purchase tickets. Guests will not be able to purchase tickets direct to Steamboat.com unless purchasing a season pass. All tickets are nonrefundable per Steamboat.com.

If you do not purchase tickets in advance, The Ptarmigan Inn will not provide a refund to any guest who arrives at the hotel and unable to purchase tickets.

Thank you!
