

Contraindications for Cryoskin 4.0

Do Not Receive Treatment If You Have:

- Active cancer
- Severe Raynaud's syndrome
- Allergies to cold, heat, or propylene glycol
- Cold-related illnesses (cryoglobulinemia, paroxysmal cold hemoglobinuria, cold agglutinin disease)
- Lower limb ischemia
- Uncontrolled diabetes or diabetes-related complications
- Severe kidney or liver disease
- Pregnancy or breastfeeding
- Fillers in the treatment area within the past 4 weeks
- Bacterial or viral skin infections
- Active or severe eczema, rashes, or dermatitis in the treatment area
- Silicone or other implants in the treatment area
- Irremovable body piercings in the treatment area (must work around, not over)
- Incision scars in the treatment area
- Open or infected wounds
- Impaired skin sensation
- Undiagnosed lumps or bumps
- Peripheral arterial disease (PAD) or peripheral vascular disease (PVD)
- Consult Your Physician Before Treatment If You Have:
- History of cancer
- Autoimmune or acquired diseases
- Progressive conditions (such as MS, ALS, Parkinson's, neuropathy)
- Cardiovascular disease
- Lymphatic disorders
- Wound-healing disorders
- Severe eczema, rashes, or dermatitis outside the treatment area
- Circulatory disorders
- Use of topical antibiotics in the treatment area
- Surgery within the past 6 months
- Metal implants in or near the treatment area
- Mesh inserts or hernia in or near the treatment area
- Implanted medical devices (pacemaker, defibrillator, etc.)
- Epilepsy
- Any serious or undiagnosed health condition